

Maria Bianca Farina

Maria Bianca Farina graduated with a degree in Economics and Business from the University of Rome "La Sapienza".

She has been awarded "Cavaliere al Merito del Lavoro" honor.

Since June 2017 she has been Chairwoman of Poste Vita and Poste Assicura, of which she was Chief Executive Officer from 2007 to 2017, and since December 2017 she has been Chairwoman of the Foundation Poste Insieme.

Since December 2015 she has been Chairman of ANIA, and since 2016 also of the ANIA Foundation.

Deputy Chairman of the Governing Board of the FEBAF (Federazioni delle banche, delle assicurazioni e della finanza).

Since 2017 she has been member of the Board of Directors of the Bambin Gesù Hospital, and is also a Director of "Save the Children".

Appointed by Pope Francis, since 2014 she has been a member of the Governing Board of the AIF, the Holy See's Financial Information and Supervision Authority.

An official auditor, she has held, and still holds, positions on a number of Boards of Directors and Boards of Statutory Auditors, in some cases as Chairman.

She regularly participates as a speaker at conferences on insurance and economics, industry, and welfare organized by the main business associations, companies, and periodicals concerned.

She is the author of numerous articles in the most important Italian and international financial periodicals.

She has been Chairman of the Board of Directors of Poste Italiane since April 2017.