ART. 3 Convening, conduct and minutes of the meetings

- 3.1 The Committee meets when it is called upon to perform the functions assigned to it by the regulations in force and by the Guideline; the Committee's activities are coordinated, by the Secretary, with those of the Board of Directors.
- 3.2 At the request of the Chairman, the Secretary sends the notice of a meeting – containing the date, time, place and the agenda, specifying in a special section any items regarding the activities of BancoPosta – to the members of the Committee and the Board of Statutory Auditors, normally at least three days before the one set for the meeting is scheduled, ensuring that there are two working days off. In cases of urgency, the deadline may be shorter but, in any case, is no less than 24 hours. The Secretary sends the meeting notice, for information, to the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer.
- 3.3 The documentation regarding items on the agenda is made available to the Committee and the Board of Statutory Auditors by the Secretary through an online platform which is equipped with the necessary IT security requirements, usually together with the call notice referred to in the paragraph 3.2.
- 3.4 The meetings of the Committee are chaired by the Chairman or, if he or she is absent or impeded, by the oldest member in terms of age.
- 3.5 The meetings of the Committee are attended by the Board of Statutory Auditors. With regard to single items on the agenda, the Chairman of the Committee may invite to the meetings other members of the Board of Directors, the Magistrate representing the Court of Auditors and, via the Corporate Affairs function, other Company executives or third parties who may help the Committee to better perform its duties. The Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer may take part in the meetings of the Committee.
- 3.6 The Committee's meetings may be held via telecommunications, provided that all the participants can be identified and such identification is acknowledged in the related minutes, they are able to follow the discussion and participate therein in real time, as well as to exchange documents if needed. - 3.7 For Committee meetings to be valid, they must be attended by a majority of the members in office.

3.8 The Committee's decisions must be made by an absolute majority of members present. In case of a tie, the vote of who chairs the meeting is decisive. In the event that one or more of the members of the Committee are related with reference to a given Transaction, the activities falling within the competence of the Committee pursuant to para. 4.4.1 and para. 4.4.2 of the Guideline are carried out in accordance with Article 2 (definition of the "Committee") of the Guideline. In order to assess the possible presence within the Committee of directors who are related with respect to a given Transaction, the members of the Committee are required to promptly report to the Chairperson of the Committee (or to the other members, in the case of the Chairperson) and to the Secretariat of the Committee itself the possible existence of situations that are even only potentially relevant, without prejudice, in any event, to the obligations of disclosure to the Board of Directors and to the Board of Statutory Auditors, pursuant to the applicable provisions of law.

3.9 The proceedings of the Committee's meetings are recorded in minutes which – signed by who chairs and the Secretary – are kept by the latter in chronological order. Copies are sent to the members of the Committee, as well as to the regular members of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

The meetings of the Committee are, as a rule, recorded in a concise but exhaustive manner, nevertheless, in the preparation of the minutes it is considered (i) the possible request by a member of the Committee to report in detail his / her intervention, or (ii) the need or opportunity, dictated by specific needs, of an analytical recording.

The approval of the minutes usually takes place at the following meeting of the Committee, unless immediate approval is required.

3.10 The opinions issued by the Committee pursuant to art. 2.2 b) above are annexed to the minutes of the Committee meeting and forwarded by the Secretary of the Committee to the Proponent Function.

3.11 If deemed necessary, the Chairman of the Committee, at the first useful meeting, informs the Board of Directors about the activities carried out by the Committee itself.

ART. 4 Approval and amendment of the Regulations

- 4.2 The Committee periodically checks the appropriateness of the present regulations and submits any proposals for changes or additions to the Board of Directors.
