Chapter II

Share Capital, Shares, BancoPosta Segregated Assets, Withdrawal and Bonds

Article 5

- 5.1 The Company's share capital is Euro 1,306,110,000 (one billion three hundred and six million one hundred and ten thousand Euro) divided among 1,306,110,000 (one billion three hundred and six million one hundred and ten thousand) ordinary shares with no nominal value.

Article 6

- 6.1 The shares are indivisible, and each share gives the right to one vote in all the meetings of the shareholders of the Company.
- 6.2 The shares are registered. The shares are freely transferable.
- 6.3 The shareholders, solely by virtue of their ownership of shares, accept these bylaws.

6.4 The Company may issue shares of any class, as well as bonds, including convertible bonds and bonds cum warrants.

6.5 Art. 3 of the Legislative Decree of 31 May 1994 no. 332, converted with amendments by way of the Law of 30 July 1994 no. 474, provides for a limit on share ownership which entails a shareholding of more than 5% (five per cent) of the share capital. The current article 6.5 does not apply to the holding in the share capital of the Company held by the Ministry of the Economy and Finance, public bodies and persons controlled by them.

The maximum limit on share ownership is also calculated by taking into account the total shareholdings belonging to: the parent company, natural or legal person, body or company; to all the direct or indirect subsidiaries and the subsidiaries of one controlling person; to connected persons and natural persons linked by kinship or affinity up to the second degree or marriage provided that the spouse is not legally separated.

Control exists, including with reference to persons other than the companies, in the cases set out in art. 2359(1)(2) of the Civil Code.

Connection exists in the cases set out in art. 2359(3) of the Civil Code, and also between persons who, directly or indirectly, through subsidiaries, other than those manage investment funds, adhere, including with third parties, to agreements relating to the exercise of the right to vote or the transfer of shares or stakes of third party companies or in any case contracts or agreements as set out in section 122 of the Legislative Decree of 24 February 1998, no. 58, in relation to third party companies, where such contracts or agreements relate to at least 10% (ten per cent) of the capital with voting rights if it is a listed company or 20% (twenty per cent) if it is a non-listed company.

For the purposes of the calculation of the aforementioned share ownership limit account is taken also of the shares held by fiduciaries and/or intermediary persons and in general by intermediary bodies.

The right to vote and the other rights having a content other than a financial content pertaining to the shares held in excess of the maximum share ownership limit cannot be exercised; in the case in which the maximum share ownership limit – calculated pursuant to this article – is exceeded by several persons the voting right which would be due to the each person to which the share ownership limit relates falls proportionately, save for prior joint instructions of the shareholders concerned. In case of non compliance the resolution may be challenged under art. 2377 of the Civil Code if the majority required would not be reached without the votes in excess of the maximum limited indicated above.

6.6 The shares in respect of which the voting right cannot be exercised are in any case calculated for the purposes of the Shareholders' Meeting being duly convened.

- 6.7 In accordance with Article 2, paragraphs 17-octies et seq. of Decree Law No. 225 of 29 December 2010, converted with amendments, into Law No. 10 of 26 February 2011, pursuant to a resolution of the extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting on 14 April 2011, the Company established, effective as from 2 May 2011, segregated assets exclusively for the operations of BancoPosta, which are named BancoPosta Segregated Assets (i.e. Patrimonio BancoPosta) and are governed by specific regulations named the "Regulations for the BancoPosta Segregated Assets".
- 6.8 Resolutions approved in accordance with the law identify the assets and legal relationships included within the segregated assets, and approve the Regulations for the BancoPosta Segregated Assets setting forth how such segregated assets are organized, managed and overseen, any subsequent amendment to the Regulations for the BancoPosta Segregated Assets and the transfer into the BancoPosta Segregated Assets of any other assets and legal relationships of the Company. The foregoing resolutions are filed and registered in accordance with Article 2436 of the Civil Code.
- 6.9 In case of any delay in effecting payments due in relation to the shares, the shareholders will be liable for interest, which will accrue at an interest rate equal to official discount rate as calculated by Banca d'Italia, subject to the provisions of Article 2344 of the Civil Code.

- 7.2 There is no right to withdraw when:
- the duration of the Company is extended;
 - restrictions to the free circulation of the shares are created, amended or removed.

Article 8

- 8.1 An issue of bonds is approved by the Directors in accordance with the law, if the bonds are issued in relation to the BancoPosta Segregated Assets the Supervisory Regulations will also apply.

The same notice of call may also indicate in compliance with the law currently in force further means of electronic notification of the proxy that may be used in the specific Shareholders' Meeting to which the notice relates.

with the terms and conditions agreed from time to time with their legal representatives.

Chapter IV

Board of Directors

Article 14

- 14.1 The Company is managed by a Board of Directors composed of no less than five and no more than nine members. Within such range, the Shareholders' Meeting determines the number of members. The composition of the Board of Directors must be such as to ensure compliance with the applicable laws and regulations on matters of gender balance.
- 14.2 Directors cannot be elected for a term that exceeds three financial years, and their term will expire on the date of the meeting called to approve the financial statements for the last financial year of their term. Directors can be reelected.
- 14.3 A judicial order, even if still subject to appeal and in any event without prejudice to the effects of rehabilitation, will constitute just cause for ineligibility for or removal from office for cause, with no right to compensation for damages, if it finds a person or a Director guilty of one of the following offences:
- a. pursuant to the laws and regulations that govern banking, financial, intermediation, brokerage and insurance activities, as well as capital markets, securities and payment instruments;
 - b. under Title XI, Book V of the Civil Code and Royal Decree No. 267 of 16 March 1942;
 - c. the rules and regulations governing offences against the public administration, public trust, property, public policy, public finances or relating to fiscal matters;

d. Article 51, paragraph 3-bis of the Code of Penal Procedure or Article 73 of Presidential Decree No. 309 of 9 October 1990.

Persons will also be ineligible in case of an indictment, or order to stand ordinary or immediate trial for one of the offences described above at (a), (b), (c) and (d), unless acquitted, even if such acquittal is still subject to appeal, or in case of a non-appealable order finding them guilty of an intentional criminal offence to the detriment of the Treasury.

Directors who while in office are indicted, or ordered to stand ordinary or immediate trial, for any of the offences described above at (a), (b), (c) and (d) or are found guilty, with a non-appealable order, of an offence involving fraud to the detriment of the Treasury shall immediately notify the Board of Directors on a strictly confidential basis. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting following the notification and no later than ten days after the notification of the orders described above, shall verify whether any of the circumstances set out above exist.

If the existence of such circumstances is ascertained, the Director is removed from office for just cause, with no right to compensation for damages, unless within the above ten-day term the Board of Directors calls a Shareholders' Meeting, to be held within the following sixty days, so as to submit to the Shareholders' Meeting a proposal that the Director maintained in office, supporting such proposal on the basis that maintaining such Director in office is in the overriding interest of the Company. If the existence of such circumstances is ascertained by the Board of Directors after the end of the Company's financial year, then the proposal is submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting called to approve the related financial statements for the year, subject to compliance with the terms under applicable laws and regulations.

If the Shareholders' Meeting does not approve the Board of Directors' proposal, the Director is immediately removed from office for just cause, with no right to compensation for damages.

Without prejudice to the provisions above, a Managing Director who:

is automatically removed from office as Director for just cause, with no right to compensation for damages, and with the simultaneous termination of all powers conferred to him or her.

Similarly, the Managing Director is removed from office if he or she is subject to any non-appealable pre-trial personal restriction other than prison or house arrest if the Board of Directors deems that such court order renders it impossible for the Managing Director to perform his or her duties.

For the purposes of this Article 14.3, a plea agreement entered into pursuant to Article 444 of the Code of Penal Procedure is deemed to be a finding of guilt, unless the offence is extinguished.

For the purposes of this Article 14.3, the Board of Directors will make a valuation of offences that are wholly or partially governed by foreign laws by comparing them to the Italian equivalent.

14.4 Directors must meet the requirements of respectability and professionalism under the applicable laws and regulations, these bylaws and the Supervisory Regulations.

The number of Directors must meet the requirements of independence so that the independent Directors at any time are at least the minimum number of independent Directors required under the laws and regulations applicable from time to time. For this purposes, the following are not deemed to be independent Directors:

- i. the spouse, relatives by blood and by marriage up to the fourth degree of the Company's directors, the directors of the Company's subsidiaries, parent companies and affiliates and their respective spouses, relatives by blood and by marriage up to the fourth degree;
- ii. individuals connected to the Company, its subsidiaries, parent companies, affiliates, Directors or the persons described at paragraph (i) above by way of subordinate employment or other work or professional relationship, or any other economic or professional connection that may prejudice their independence.

Annually, the Board of Directors will evaluate the independence and respectability of the Directors as well as whether any reasons for ineligibility or incompatibility exist.

In accordance with the Supervisory Regulations, the Board of Directors annually will also verify, through a self-evaluation process as described in internal regulations, that it is composed adequately and performing.

The Directors are appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting on the basis of slates submitted by the shareholders in which the candidates must be listed by way of a progressive number.

The slates may be submitted only by those shareholders who by themselves or together with other shareholders represent at least 1% (one per cent) of the share capital or the amount laid down by Consob in its regulations.

Each slate must include at least two candidates meeting the prerequisites of independence and mention distinctly these candidates and indicate one of them as the top of the slate.

The slates that present a number of candidates equal to or higher than three must also include candidates of a different gender, according to the indications in the notice of call of the meeting, so as to ensure a board composition that complies with the laws on gender balance.

The slates, under penalty of inadmissibility, must be drawn up, filed at the registered office of the Company and published in accordance with law and these by-laws.

Any shareholder may submit or join in the submission of a single slate. The persons that control it, the companies controlled by them and those subject to common control cannot submit or join in the submission of other slates or vote for them, including through an intermediary person or through fiduciary companies, where controlled companies means the companies referred to in art. 93 of the Legislative Decree of 24 February 1998, no. 58.

Each candidate may put him/herself forward on one list only under penalty of ineligibility.

Together with the filing of each slate, under penalty of inadmissibility, the CV of each candidate must also be filed in addition to the declarations by which the individual candidates accept their candidature and attest at their own responsibility the inexistence of any cause of ineligibility and incompatibility as well as the fulfilment of the prerequisites of integrity, professionalism and, eventually, independence laid down by the law for the respective positions.

The Directors appointed must communicate immediately to the Board of Directors the loss of the prerequisites indicated above as well as the occurrence of causes of ineligibility.

Each person entitled to vote may vote for one slate only.

The election of the Directors will be conducted as follows:

- a. from the slate which obtained most votes cast shall be drawn, in the order in which they were listed on the slate, three quarters of the Directors to be elected, and rounded down in case of a fraction to the lower unit;
- b. the remaining Directors are drawn from the other slates; to that end, the votes obtained from the other slates are divided subsequently by one, two or three etc according to the number of directors to be elected. The quotients thereby obtained are assigned progressively to the candidates of each slate, in accordance with the order respectively provided for them. The quotients thus assigned to the candidates of the various slates are set out in a single ranking in descending order. Those who obtained the highest quotients are elected.

In the event that several candidates have obtained the same quotient the candidate on the slate which has not yet elected any director or has elected the smaller number of Directors is elected.

In the event that none of these slates have yet elected a Director or all have elected the same number of Directors, within these slates will be elected the candidate of the slate which obtained the highest number of votes. In case of parity of slate votes and parity of quotients a new vote will be held by the entire Shareholders' Meeting and the candidate who obtains the simple majority is elected;

- c. for the purposes of the distribution of the Directors to be elected, account is not taken of the candidates indicated in the slates which obtained a number of votes lower than half of the percentage required for the submission of the slates;
- d. in the event that the minimum number of independent Directors and/or Directors belonging to the less represented gender are not elected, the Directors of the most voted for slate with the highest progressive number and without the prerequisites in question will be replaced by the next candidates meeting the prerequisite or the prerequisites required drawn from the same slate. When even when applying this criterion it is not possible to identify the Directors meeting the prerequisites, the criterion of replacement indicated will apply to the minority slates most voted for from which were drawn the elected candidates; where even when applying the criteria of replacement provided for herein suitable replacements are not identified, the meeting will resolve with a simple majority. In this case the replacements will be carried out starting with the slates most voted for and by the candidates with the highest progressive number;
- e. at the end of the operations indicated above, the Chairman will announce the names of those elected;
- f. as regards the appointment of the Directors, which for any reason are not elected pursuant to the procedure set out above, the Shareholders' Meeting will resolve by way of the majorities in accordance with law so as to ensure in any case the presence of the required number of Directors meeting the prerequisites of independence as well as compliance with the laws currently in force regarding gender balance.

The voting slate procedure applies only in case of the renewal of the entire Board of Directors.

- 14.5 If during the course of a financial year one or more Directors cease to hold office, they shall be replaced pursuant to Article 2386, of the Civil Code in accordance with the following. If one or more of the outgoing Directors had been drawn from a slate also containing the names of non-elected candidates, the replacement takes place with the appointment, in progressive order, of persons drawn from the slate to which the outgoing Director belonged and provided that they are still electable and willing to accept the position. In any case the outgoing Directors will be replaced by the Board of Directors, in such a manner as to ensure that a sufficient number of independent Directors are in office, and that the requirements under the laws requiring gender balance are met. If the majority of the Directors appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting cease to hold office, then the entire Board of Directors will be deemed to have resigned and the Directors remaining in office shall without delay convene a Shareholders' Meeting to appoint a new Board of Directors.
- 14.6 The Board of Directors creates an internal control and risk committee, which will also be responsible for addressing transactions with related parties and related persons, a nomination committee and a compensation committee, in line with the requirements set out in the Supervisory Regulations and the Code of Conduct. The Board of Directors can also create additional consulting committees to which it may attribute responsibilities on specific matters.

The Board of Directors can also be called to meet in accordance with Article 25.6 of these bylaws. The Board of Directors must also be called to meet upon written request by at least three Directors, to resolve on a specific matter, which must be set out in the written request.

- 16.2 The meetings of the Board of Directors may be held also through audio or video telecommunication means, provided that all the participants can be identified and such identification is acknowledged in the minutes of the meeting and that all participants are able to participate in real time to the debate on the matters under discussion, and to exchange documents as necessary, in such circumstances, the meeting is deemed to be held in the location where the person chairing the meeting is attending, which must be the same location where the secretary must be, so as to allow preparation and execution of the minutes.
- 16.3 As a general rule, the meeting must be called at least five days before the day set for the meeting. In urgent circumstances, the meeting may be called earlier, but no later than the day before the meeting. The Board of Directors resolves on how its meetings may be called.

The members of the Board of Statutory Auditors are chosen among individuals who meet the requisites of professionalism and respectability under the applicable law and regulations, as well as any additional requisites under the Supervisory Regulation. The Board of Statutory Auditors, annually, will also verify through a self-evaluation process as described in internal regulations, that it is composed adequately and performing.
